

The Justice Policy Institute Presents:

MOVING BEYOND THE OFFENSE

Rethinking Punishment for Violent Crime
And Learning Lessons from Maryland's
Unger Cases

Join us for lunch and a panel discussion about America's response to violent crime and Maryland's Unger Case.

Speakers include:

- Walter Lomax, Executive Director of Maryland Restorative Justice Initiative
- Stanley Mitchell, a formerly incarcerated individual released as a result of the Unger decision
- Marc Schindler, Executive Director of Justice Policy Institute
- Elizabeth Smith from the University of Maryland School of Law

Moderator: Nkechi Taifa, Advocacy Director for Criminal Justice, Open Society Foundations and Convener, Justice Roundtable Coalition

RSVP: Jasmine Mickens of OSF at jasmine.mickens@opensocietyfoundations.org

Friday October
14th
12pm-2pm

Open Society
Foundations
1730 Pennsylvania
Ave. NW,
Suite 700,
Washington D.C.
20006

JUSTICE
POLICY INSTITUTE

Hosted by the Justice
Roundtable's
*Conversations on Justice Series

