

BRIEFING – SECOND CHANCE PELL GRANTS FOR INCARCERATED STUDENTS

On Wednesday, February 13, the Association of Community College Trustees, American Association of Community Colleges, and Los Angeles Community College District will hold a lunch briefing to discuss the benefits of postsecondary education for incarcerated individuals and federal policy options to expand postsecondary access for this population. Additionally, speakers will discuss recent experiences and preliminary outcomes from the Department of Education’s Second Chance Pell Grant experimental sites initiative.

Wednesday, February 13, 2019
12:30 p.m. – 2:00 p.m.
2168 Rayburn House Office Building
Lunch will be provided

Featured Speakers:

- Sean Addie, Director of Correctional Education, U.S. Department of Education
- Ruth Delaney, Program Manager, Vera Institute of Justice
- Mike Fong, President of the Board of Trustees, Los Angeles Community College District
- Shon Holman, Student, East Tennessee State University
- Connie Hornbeck, Chair of the Board of Directors, Association of Community College Trustees; Trustee, Iowa Western Community College
- Dr. Sandra Kurtinitis, Chair of the Board of Directors, American Association of Community Colleges; President, Community College of Baltimore County, MD
- Molly Lasagna, Executive Director, Tennessee Higher Education Initiative
- Dr. Daniel J. Phelan, President, Jackson College, MI

For additional information contact Jennifer Stiddard from the Association of Community College Trustees – jstiddard@acct.org