

Wednesday, December 4, 2019

9:30 am - 12:30 pm ET

True Reformer Building, 1200 U St. NW Washington, DC 20009

JUSTICE ROUNDTABLE QUARTERLY ASSEMBLY AGENDA

- I. 9:30 –10:00 Refreshments and Networking
- II. 10:00 Introductions, Moderator: Nkechi Taifa, Convener, Justice Roundtable
- III. Short Video: The Ungers: A Matter of Time
- IV. Features

FEATURE I: Aging People in Prison: The Impact of Harsh and Lengthy Sentences

Discussants:

Jackie Craig-Bey, Case Mgr. Freddi's House; Assoc. Producer, Crossroads Radio Show hosted by Roach Brown. Released from prison after serving 15 years.

Marc Mauer, Executive Director, The Sentencing Project. Co-Author, The Meaning of Life; Race to Incarcerate, and more.

Stanley Mitchell, Owner of transportation business. Released from prison after 38 years under Maryland Unger decision.

Jose Saldana, Director of RAPP (Release Aging People in Prison). Released from prison in 2018, after 38 years and four Parole Board denials.

Charlie Sullivan, Executive Director, Citizens United for the Rehabilitation of Errants (CURE National).

FEATURE II: “BLUE” – Discussion about upcoming opera

A family struggles when their teenage son is shot by the police

<https://www.kennedy-center.org/calendar/event/OUOSG>

Discussants: John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts: Tim O’Leary, General Director Washington National Opera and Jennifer Bowman, Director of Music Education

BRIEF BREAK

- V. Justice Roundtable Working Group Reports: State Issues, Directly Impacted, Youth Justice, Commutations, Human Rights, Racial Justice, Sentencing, Law Enforcement, Prison Reform, Drug Policy, Reentry, Faith, Pretrial, Crimmigration, Commutations

- VI. Announcements: Next Justice Roundtable Quarterly Assembly, March 6, 2020